VILLA RETIRES TO GET FORCES REPROVISIONED TEUTON AND BULGAR CONTINUING TO GAIN

SUPPLIES ARE WAITING FOR HIM AT NACO Forty-Five Members of Carranza Reconnoitering Party Are Killed by Villistas

(By Associated Press.)
DOUGLAS, Ariz., Nov. 3.—Hunger, thirst, and shortage of ammunition forced Villa to retire to Ahuacachi pass, 12 miles southwest. His eastern reinforcements have arrived. It is believed the Villistas will recuperate and resupply their army before renewing the attack. It is known that supplies are available for Villa at Naco. Villista machine guns killed 45 of a party of 50 Carranzistas who were reconnoitering a mile south of Agua Prieta. Villa left 336 dead on the field. Carranza lost 25 killed and 75 wounded. A thousand cavalrymen and ten machine guns were sent to harass the retreating Villistas. The Villa garrisons at Ojinaga, La Colorado and Chihuahua have surrendered.

STUDENTS ADDED TO SCHOOL OF MINES

PREPARATIONS BEING MADE TO TAKE UP WORK IN ANALYSIS AND ASSAYING

There have been several enrollments lately at the Tonopah School of Mines and thirty students are now regularly in attendance at the afternoon and evening classes. The principal work now is in chemistry and algebra. Several of the students who have finished the latter course are now engaged in making analysis of Tonopah ores.

As soon as all finish this course there will begin practical work in assaying and ore analysis. The chemistry laboratory is having additions made so that this work may be carried on. Principal Bennett, on behalf of the student body, wishes to thank the Bonanza for its donation of the files of the Mining World for the past two years. Two other technical magazines are taken at the school and a nucleus for a mining and metallurgical library is being formed. The principal wishes to impress the fact that students may enter the school at any time and take the back work of the course. There are accommodations for a number of additional students.

RAILWAY MAIL MAN DIRECTS ROBBERING CAR

(By Associated Press.)
ST. LOUIS, Nov. 2.—Charles M. Summers, a railway mail clerk, was held by the federal authorities here today on a charge of conspiring to rob the mails. Postoffice inspectors say he signed a confession.

Summers runs between St. Louis and Memphis on the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad and was arrested last night at Southeast Junction, according to the postal authorities, as he was directing two men in the robbing of the mail car. One of the men was a detective who had laid a trap for Summers.

GERMAN FOOD SUPPLY IS GROWING SERIOUS

(By Associated Press.)
AMSTERDAM, Nov. 3.—The Vorwaerts, a Berlin newspaper, says that the committee of the social democratic party has requested the imperial chancellor to convene the reichstag at an early date because the questions of food supply and the state of siege require speedy discussion. The Frankfurter-Zeitung, issued on Saturday, devotes nearly an entire page to the imperial government laws for ameliorating food conditions.

MEDICAL MISSIONARIES

(By Associated Press.)
BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Nov. 3.—Medical missionaries from all parts of the world are here attending the seventh interdenominational medical missionary conference today.

SHOCK KILLS MISSIONARIES

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Rev. J. L. Barton, foreign secretary of the board of commissioners of foreign missions, said the shock of war's tragedies in Turkey had killed five American missionaries since May.

TYPHOON HEADING TOWARD MANILA

(By Associated Press.)
MANILA, Nov. 3.—A typhoon in southern Luzon, heading toward Manila, has left in its trail 200 dead and a million dollars' property loss. Two vessels were foundered, but the crews were saved.

Equal Suffrage Defeated by Heavy Majorities in Three Eastern States

Suffrage was defeated in New York by 200,000, and was also defeated in Massachusetts and Pennsylvania. E. C. Harrington was elected governor of Maryland. He is a Democrat and succeeds a Republican. S. W. McCall, a Republican, was elected governor of Massachusetts, and succeeds a Democrat. A Republican congressman was elected in New York, gaining one vote for the party. Taumany triumphed in New York City, electing the district attorney, sheriff and a majority of the aldermen, for the first time in 15 years.

Steamer Santa Clara Goes onto the Rocks--Eleven Bodies Are Recovered

(By Associated Press.)
MARSHFIELD, Ore., Nov. 3.—Eleven bodies have been recovered and nine are missing from the wreck of the Santa Clara, which had 40 passengers aboard. All survivors who were able to travel have been brought here. Others are in the Bastendorf beach cottage. The boat will probably be a total loss as a heavy sea is pounding it to pieces.

DEMANDS OF ALLIES RATIFIED BY FRANCE

(By Associated Press.)
PEKING, Nov. 3.—France has ratified the allies' demand for the postponement of the election for a change of the form of government in China. Should the electorate ratify a change, it is probable that coronation would be postponed until the end of the war. The Peking News says: "America is watching events quietly, which is a source of encouragement to China."

WILL FORM NEW MINISTRY THAT IS MORE FAVORABLE TO ALLIES

(By Associated Press.)
MILAN, Nov. 3.—In Rumania the opposition is endeavoring to overthrow the Bratiano cabinet and form a ministry favorable to the allies. It is reported that Rumania's entrance into the war is conditional upon the allies sending half a million men.

ORPHANAGE IS BURNED; CHILDREN ARE AT MASS

(By Associated Press.)
HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 3.—Sylvan Heights orphanage, the largest institution of its kind in the Catholic diocese of Harrisburg, was destroyed by fire today but its 103 children who were attending mass in the chapel when the flames were discovered, were marched to safety. Defects in wiring are supposed to have caused the fire.

ANIMALS SACRIFICED

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Nov. 3.—Cancer investigations cost the lives of 87,253 animals in England and Scotland during the year of 1914, states a report issued by the home office. Of these experiments, 21,746 were in the nature of inoculations and were performed almost entirely upon mice to test vaccines. The public health department used something over 24,000 animals in various experiments.

STRIKERS DISLIKE PUBLICITY

(By Associated Press.)
CLIFTON, Ariz., Nov. 3.—William Byrne, representative of an El Paso newspaper which incurred the enmity of the strike leaders, obeyed today an order given him yesterday to "move." He left after a store was picketed because its manager refused to discontinue distribution of the newspaper.

PUBLISHING NAMES MAKES THEM PAY UP

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—The government's action in publishing the names of Chicagoans who borrowed money of it to get out of Europe bore fruit today when many of the delinquents paid their debts at the subtreasury. Many of them explained that hard times had made it difficult to pay before.

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, Nov. 3.—The Bulgarians have been repulsed in southern Serbia and the French are advancing near Strumitza.

READY TO RECOGNIZE

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—France and England are ready to recognize the Carranza government.

Several survivors went to private homes and it is impossible to secure a complete list. Revised figures said that eight bodies had been recovered, two of them still unidentified. The boat is on its side and will be a total loss, but is unbroken as yet. Captain Lofsted shot a life line over a tree on a bluff, 200 yards away. The captain and six sailors rode in breeches buoy to the shore. They were previously capsize in a boat but managed to regain the ship. They were the last to leave. All praised the captain for his bravery and gallantry.

AMERICA CLOSELY WATCHING CHINA'S PROPOSED CHANGE IN GOVERNMENT

(By Associated Press.)
PEKING, Nov. 3.—France has ratified the allies' demand for the postponement of the election for a change of the form of government in China. Should the electorate ratify a change, it is probable that coronation would be postponed until the end of the war. The Peking News says: "America is watching events quietly, which is a source of encouragement to China."

DIES IN LAS VEGAS

Nehemiah Clark, one of the oldest pioneers in the southern part of the state, died recently at a Las Vegas hospital. He was 87 years of age and was actively engaged in the business enterprises of the southern part of the state and was well known to all early residents there. He erected the first sawmill in the Charleston mountains in 1874.

NEW ELKO POSTMASTER

Harry H. Mayer of Elko recently began his duties as postmaster in that town. He is well known in the Elko district and his assuming the position seems to be a popular choice. J. C. Dougherty, the retiring postmaster, will enter the practice of law.

FRENCH LAND IN GREECE FOR FRONT Will be Able to Reinforce Serbians If they Make Quick Move To the Front

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Nov. 3.—Sofia reports that the French are landing troops at Kavala, Greece. It is believed practicable to reinforce the Serbians if the French are quick enough. The Teutons and Bulgarians continue attacking and are gaining. The Austrians admit that they have been able to capture only 20 Serbian officers and 6000 men. Petrograd reports that Germans have been sent from Russia to Serbia.

RESUMPTION LIKELY FOR SMITH VALLEY

PROPERTY THAT HAS BEEN IN RECEIVER'S HANDS MAY BE REVIVED

H. L. Van Valen, the representative of the stockholders of the Smith Valley Mines company, has arrived in the city, his visit having for its object a conference with Receiver E. J. Cooper and Warren Hauser, attorney for the receiver, regarding the final settlement of all obligations and the ending of the receivership and future operations of the property. Through the efforts of Mr. Van Valen and associates arrangements have been made for the future financing, and it is thought that all troubles will end in a very short time.—Yerington Times.

CLAIM JUMPERS ARE GIVEN THEIR QUIETUS

The suit of Marion H. Williams against T. G. Brice, et al., which was in court all last week, was brought to a close Monday, says the Las Vegas Age. According to the testimony, the defendants jumped the claims previously located for the plaintiff and attempted to hold them against her prior claim. In rendering his decision Judge Horney found for the first locator, Marion H. Williams, on every point, thus placing her securely in possession of the valuable mining claims under controversy, including one on the dump of a value of about $4000. The court quieted title of the plaintiff against Brice and his co-defendants, and enjoined them from interfering in any way with the property or removing any ore therefrom.

TRIBUTE PAID TO LATE GEORGE MURPHY

The following relative to the late George Murphy of Tonopah appears in the Goldfield Tribune: After the All Souls' day services this morning, Father Dermody addressed a few comforting remarks to the friends and relatives of the dead boy, dwelling especially on the fact that he had manifested the greatest fortitude and patience during his long illness. Deceased was 27 years of age, and before his illness, was interested in a lease on the Kewanas. Miss Ethel Murphy, a sister of the deceased and formerly organist of St. Mary's church but now a resident of Tonopah, was in attendance at the deathbed. Miss Kelly, an aunt who reared the boy, came over from Tonopah last evening to attend the funeral. In spite of his affliction George Murphy was gifted with a cheerful disposition and up to a few days before his death maintained the utmost good humor, cheering and encouraging the other patients at the hospital. The dead boy had suffered from paralysis for four years, during which time he received many kind attentions from his numerous friends.

PEACE STORIES DENIED

(By Associated Press.)
ROME, Nov. 3.—The pope today told the cardinals that he was unable to assure the likelihood of early peace. The allies' embassies denied stories of a peace move.

FUNSTON MAY CROSS BORDER

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—President Wilson and Secretary Garrison are considering authorizing General Funston to cross the border if necessary to protect Douglas.

FIND BIG NUGGET IN COPPER CANYON

What is undoubtedly the largest gold nugget ever found in this part of the country was taken out yesterday by Jack Mattison and J. J. Morris. They were working on a block of ground in the upper part of Copper Canyon leased from James Dahl when they dug out the chunk. There is some quartz in the nugget, but probably 30 of the 42 avoirdupois ounces is gold and the lucky finders should receive about $500 for it, but if sold as a nugget the piece should bring considerably more.—Battle Mountain Scout.

NEVADA DEFEATED AGAIN

The state university team again tasted the sting of defeat in its game with the freshmen at the University of California. The babies at the U. C. took the Nevada team into camp with the short end of a 39 to 7 score. Inability to make use of the aerial route is accredited as the cause of the Nevada team's poor showing.
